

3 Complete each mini-dialogue by putting the verbs given in brackets into either the present perfect or present perfect continuous.

- 1 A: Love Actually is on at the Rex, (you see) have you seen it?
B: No, not yet. Shall we go? I (look forward) 've been looking forward to seeing it for ages.
- 2 A: What's the matter? You look really tired!
B: I am! I (study) all day,
and I (not finish) yet.
A: Oh well, time for a break.
- 3 A: I (phone) Carol all day, but there's no reply.
B: I expect she (go) swimming with her friends.
- 4 A: (you hear) the news?
B: What news?
A: Someone (rob) the bank at the end of the road.
- 5 A: Why is your leg in plaster?
B: That's a silly question! I (break) it, of course.
A: Someone (write) 'Give me a break' on the plaster!

4 For each question, complete the second sentence so that it means the same as the first, using no more than three words.

- 1 I came to live here three months ago.
I 've been living here for three months.
- 2 Sophie is out at the shops at the moment.
Sophie to the shops.
- 3 I've had French lessons since March.
I French lessons since March.
- 4 I'm still reading this book.
I reading this book yet.
- 5 Paul left the room a moment ago.
Paul has the room.
- 6 It's ages since I last went to the cinema.
I to the cinema for ages.
- 7 This is the first time I've eaten Korean food.
I Korean food before.
- 8 I don't remember Helen's phone number.
I've Helen's phone number.

2. Put the adjectives in brackets in the correct position.

- | | |
|-------------------------------|-----------------------------------------|
| 1 an unusual ring (gold) | 9 a hot bath (nice) |
| 2 an old lady (nice) | 10 an ugly dress (orange) |
| 3 a good-looking man (young) | 11 a red car (old/little) |
| 4 a modern house (attractive) | 12 a metal box (black/small) |
| 5 black gloves (leather) | 13 a little village (old/lovely) _ |
| 6 an American film (old) | 14 long hair (fair/beautiful) _ |
| 7 a large nose (red) _ | 15 an old painting (interesting/French) |
| 8 a sunny day (lovely) | |