

Make vs Do

Do is used when talking about work, jobs or tasks. They do not produce any physical object.

Example: He has done his homework

Make is used when producing, constructing or creating something new.

Example: Her rings are made of gold

Choose the correct option

- |  |          |          |
|--|----------|----------|
| 1.- My sister hasn't ..... the shopping yet.                 | a)made   | b)done   |
| 2.- Uncle Tom went to Brazil and he .....a fortune there.    | a)made   | b)did    |
| 3.-The hairdresser is ..... my hair for the wedding.         | a)doing  | b)making |
| 4.-Sonia never ..... any mistakes.                           | a)does   | b)makes  |
| 5.-Excuse me, Can you ..... dinner?                          | a)do     | b)make   |
| 6.-The two men are ..... a good job.                         | a)making | b)doing  |
| 7.-Listen to me, please. I would like to ..... a suggestion. | a)make   | b)do     |
| 8.-The angry man wanted to ..... a complaint.                | a)make   | b)do     |
| 9.-It's late so I need to ..... a phone call.                | a)make   | b)do     |
| 10.-Silence! You can't ..... in the library.                 | a)make   | b)do     |
| 11.-Walter ..... arrangements for the trip.                  | a)makes  | b)does   |
| 12.-Their house was ..... of adobe.                          | a)made   | b)did    |
| 13.-I'm going to ..... a chocolate cake.                     | a)make   | b)do     |
| 14.-Sonia ..... me very happy.                               | a)makes  | b)does   |
| 15.-Onions ..... your eyes water.                            | a)make   | b)do     |